NEXT HNA MEETING:

Wednesday, July 20, 2005

7:00—9:00 pm

Opalka Gallery, Sage Colleges

Topic: Upcoming Neighborhood Events

Refreshments available following meeting

SAVE THESE DATES!

Saturday, July 30, 9 am to 3 pm: HNA's annual neighborhood-wide garage sale. Last year's sale was such a success we're going to do it again! There's no charge for households in the neighborhood to join in. If you wish to participate, just set up your sale table, and the shoppers will come! HNA will place an ad in the Times Union, and hang posters on each street within its boundaries, advertising the sale. You may start and end any time you want; the ad and posters will list 9 am to 3 pm to give shoppers an idea when they can start browsing and buying.

Tuesday, August 2: 22nd Annual Albany National Night Out Against Crime, sponsored by the Albany Police. National Night Out is a crime/drug prevention event involving law enforcement agencies, civic groups, businesses, neighborhood organizations and local officials from all 50 states. If your neighborhood would like to hold a block party or other event on this crime prevention night, contact Sgt. Fred Aliberti at 447-8763 or faliberti@albany-ny.org.

Tuesday, September 13: Primary Day. Don't forget to vote for your favorite candidates!

Wednesday, September 21: HNA's Annual Picnic in the field next to the Firehouse on New Scotland Avenue. Meet your neighbors, share some food, win some prizes! Don't forget your lawn chairs!

DEAR NEIGHBORS:

Hopefully you are finding fun and interesting ways to keep cool this summer. If you don't own one yourself, the nearest City pool, Mater Christi, is located behind the NYS Corrections Training Academy on New Scotland Road, across from Holy Names School. The pool is open until 7 p.m. daily. It is easily reached by bus (#13 New Scotland) and has a very nice playground and playing fields for children of all ages.

Within the borders of our own Association, we are getting ready for the upcoming neighborhood-wide garage sale, and of course our Annual Neighborhood Picnic on September 21. Volunteers to assist with the picnic are always welcome. People are needed to contact neighborhood businesses to seek donations; set-up for the event; staff information tables; clean up; and taking it all down at the end. Vans or pick-up trucks are needed to transport tables and chairs. I can confirm that the traditional cooks for the event will be hard at work that night and it should be a grand time for all. Our attendance last year (head count obtained by methods comparable to ballot counting in Florida) was close to 300 people during the course of the event. As usual—we plan to set a new record for attendance this year so come out and bring all your relatives. This is all part of our Association's commitment to make ours a "Four Season Neighborhood" and one of the best places to live in the City.

Note the change in location for our July 20 meeting. We will still be on Sage Campus, but will move to the Opalka Gallery, facing New Scotland Avenue. If you've been planning to tour the Gallery but haven't gotten around to it, now's your chance!

See you at the meeting!

From Albania to Albany

Eat your heart out New York City (and Pine Hills, Arbor Hill and every other neighborhood in Albany).

We've got Pasquale's.

Vitore (known as Victoria) Gelaj, the new owner of the Italian restaurant on the corner of Grove and New Scotland, celebrates her one-year anniversary at the location this month. It's been enough time to convince many Helderberg Neighborhood residents that she makes the best gourmet pizza in the city. "We make everything from scratch," Victoria says. "We use plum tomatoes for the sauce, fresh basil, not dried, we roast our peppers, and I make the meatballs with my own hands. I like to say that we make the best pizza money can buy." The pizza is New York-style, or thin-crust. The bruschetta Victoria serves is so good that some assume that she comes from Italy (she comes from Albania, which makes her a true Albanian).

Victoria recently remodeled the restaurant and by the time you read this it should have mahogany tables and chairs as well as a wine and beer license, creating a nice ambiance for Italian mainstays such as spaghetti, penne, lasagna, calzones and fresh salads. "We're not fancy," Victoria says. "But we've tried to make it comfortable. We want people in the neighborhood to feel right at home here."

Hours: Mon.-Thurs, 11 am-10 pm; Friday, 11 am-11 pm; Sat. & Sun, 12-9 pm. Prices: Gourmet pizza: from $13-$17 a pie; Lasagna or Penne with meatballs: $9.95; chicken parmigiana: $13.95; Mixed green salads: $3.75-$8.95. Phone: 459-5077.

City Seeks Developer to Revitalize Park South Neighborhood

The Albany Local Development Corporation has issued a Request for Proposals (RFP) to find developers willing and able to invest in the Park South Redevelopment Plan. The Park South Area Plan is intended to guide development in the area between Washington Park and Albany Medical Center (the area bounded by Delaware, Madison, Robin, and Myrtle). According to the RFP, the city expects the developer to start with the lower New Scotland section of Park South: "The goal of the plan is to utilize key development projects along, or adjacent to, New Scotland Avenue as a means to leverage other investments throughout the entire neighborhood area." The plan for Park South calls for mixed-use development, including retail space, office space, and residential development. The residential housing would include a mix of owner-occupied housing, rental units, and student housing. The RFPs are due on March 18.

More information, including the Park South Redevelopment Plan and the full text of the RFP, is available on the city's web site: <http://www.albanyny.org/>. If the city succeeds in finding a suitable developer, we will let you know in a subsequent newsletter.

Proposed Development on Holland Avenue

A request for a zoning change is before the Albany Common Council, to allow the construction of a Walgreen's drugstore, a bank, and a fast-food restaurant on the vacant property just north of the McDonald's on Holland Avenue. If you would like to offer comments or concerns, but are unable to attend the meeting, you may send them via e-mail to Shawn Morris, Common Council Member representing the 7th ward, at: shawnmorris7@aol.com.
